Stephen Hawking’s Grand Design

UK SERIES PREMIERE
THURSDAYS FROM 13TH SEPTEMBER, 9.00PM

In this new series Stephen Hawking’s Grand Design the world’s most famous physicist Stephen Hawking addresses three of the most contentious issues surrounding scientific understanding. Did God create the universe? What is the meaning of life? And is science incompatible with religion? Blending philosophy with hard science Professor Hawking tries to answer perhaps the ultimate question that has followed mankind since the dawn of time. Will the recent discovery of the Higgs-Boson, the so-called, ‘God Particle’ the latest step in a remarkable scientific voyage, provide the key to unlocking the secrets still contained in the midnight dark of the far reaches of the cosmos? These are the questions occupying scientists all over the world right now and in this series Hawking attempts to answer the seemingly unanswerable.
Fifth Gear

UK SERIES PREMIERE
MONDAYS FROM 3RD SEPTEMBER, 8.00PM

Brand new and back exclusively showing on the Discovery Channel is popular motoring show, Fifth Gear, featuring fasts cars, expert drivers and the much loved Fifth Gear presenting team, Tiff Needell, Vicki Butler-Henderson, Jason Plato and Jonny Smith. During the series the team will be trying out the latest super cars, taking part in nail biting bumper to bumper racing, investigating what cars work best in crash tests and attempting to break some of the world's toughest motoring records. There will be special guests from the world of motoring each week offering a first-hand insight into their world. In the first episode Tiff tries out the new Jaguar and Jonny conducts the world's fastest ever crash test.
Rolling back onto Discovery Channel this month are veteran car dealer Mike Brewer and top mechanic Edd China in the new series of Wheeler Dealers. Motor mad Mike will be searching far and wide, travelling around the UK, USA and Europe in his quest to find iconic vehicles that expert mechanic Edd can transform, before Mike sets about selling them on for a profit. This season of Wheeler Dealers sees Mike doing his own ‘Italian Job’ as he travels to Trieste to buy a stunning early sports car, the Fiat Dino. Back in the UK, he searches for the most British of sports cars, the Morgan, as well as buying one of the cheapest BMW M5’s in the country. He also heads to France to hunt down one of the rarest cars he has ever bought, the classic Renault Alpine 310. With each bargain Mike finds, Edd has to deal with the consequences.

Tensions and comic atmosphere run high as these two big characters take on new challenges as they bring some spectacular old classics back to life.
From aeroplane parts to engagement rings, cement to full cutlery sets, welcome to the truly astonishing world of items found inside the human body. The series chronicles the shocking accidents which left the most bizarre foreign objects ever to find themselves in the human body. Talking to the victims, those that were there at the scene and using CGI re-enactments this series recounts some of the most inexplicable, unexpected and simply astounding stories in modern medicine. Using testimony and reconstruction the series focusses on how these dangerous and bizarre objects found themselves in the body and why they were often inches away from being fatal. The first episode features a girl in Scotland, who never imagined that her normal walk to work would end impaling herself on a metal fence and a gardener who manages to impale his clipping shears into his own eye.
Fast N’ Loud

UK SERIES PREMIERE
WEDNESDAYS FROM 26TH SEPTEMBER, 9.00PM

In each episode of Fast n’ Loud, motor mastermind Richard Rawlings and mechanical prodigy Aaron Kaufmann search the far flung corners of Texas and surrounding states for forgotten and derelict classic cars to buy and restore at their Gas Monkey Garage in Dallas, Texas. While ‘in Rome,’ they’ll sometimes get in with the local customs and characters — the all American, full throttle road trip with attitude. Ultimately, Richard and Aaron will work days and nights to finish their cars to make auction. But will their blood, sweat and beers translate into cold hard cash? Whatever the outcome there’s always some fun time worked into their crazy schedules, and no matter how nuts their day gets, you can bet you’ll see some donuts in the driveway or a test drive of a great car.
Come face-to-face with a snake in your kitchen? Been bitten by a venomous creature? Lose your 14-foot python? If you live in Georgia and call 911, chances are good you’ll be directed to Jason and his family business. Running their own pest control business specialising in snakes means that every day is unpredictable for Jason and his wife Sarah with the calls ranging from the bizarre to extremely dangerous. This series follows Jason and his family as they deal with the day to day slippery customers and family life. In the first episode Jason and Sarah deal with a backyard full of snakes, but as they know the best way to get rid of snakes in your backyard is to add more snakes. But try telling that to a woman who’s just been bitten by a Copperhead! Then, with Jason’s help, Sarah has been able to overcome her fear of snakes, but will she be able to overcome her bigger fear of public speaking?
Man-Eating Super Snake

UK PREMIERE
SUNDAY 23RD SEPTEMBER, 9.00 PM

South Florida is under siege from a new invasive species. This time, they’re man-eaters: African Rock Pythons. These lethal giant constrictors are one of nature’s most aggressive snakes. As exotic pets or in the wild, they have attacked and killed humans and with them now on the loose in Florida, people, native animals, and the ecosystem aren’t safe. Currently confined to an area west of Miami, if these predators make it to the everglades and interbreed with another invasive behemoth - Burmese Pythons - it could give birth to a terrifying hybrid man-eating super snake! This programme takes a look at how these deadly creatures came to live in this region, gets opinions from snake experts and biologists and even takes a look at how deadly these creatures can really be.
