WEEK OF JULY 24th (as of 7.19.16)

THURSDAY, JULY 28th

NORTH WOODS LAW: Shifting Gears

World Premiere Thursday, July 28, at 9 PM (ET/PT)

TV-PG

Deer season is keeping the game wardens busy, but it isn't the only thing going on in Maine. Game Warden Kris MacCabe helps state troopers crack an auto theft case, while a stolen ATV steers Game Warden Jonathan Parker through a maze of potential suspects. Meanwhile, Game Warden Jeremy Judd plays diplomat to trappers and hunters who seem ready to rumble. Sgt. Chris Simmons and Game Warden Tom McKenney survey the scene of a serious hunting accident. Game Warden Wayne Carter backs up the local police department at a domestic violence dispute, and Game Wardens Adrian Marquis and Ryan Fitzpatrick set up a sting for a suspected night hunter. Later, litterbugs have been dumping on the Kennebunk Plains, and Warden Eric Blanchard wants to find the culprits.

LONE STAR LAW: Caught on Camera

World Premiere Thursday, July 28, at 10 PM (ET/PT)

TV-PG

Near Big Bend National Park, game wardens and a wildlife biologist undertake a dangerous mission surveying the bighorn sheep herds of Black Gap Wildlife Management Areas. In East Texas, game wardens set out to catch night hunters with a mechanical deer decoy. Meanwhile, an urgent call comes in near Houston from a family who feel they are in danger. Down in Galveston, a team of game wardens are the first line of defense for the region's aquatic natural resource and are on patrol to inspect fishermen's catch that'll be sold at local markets.

FRIDAY, JULY 29th

TREEHOUSE MASTERS: Frank Lloyd Lakehouse

World Premiere Friday, July 29, at 10 PM (ET/PT)

TV-PG

Pete and his team are breaking records in Cadiz, Kentucky when they build the biggest treehouse in the company's history. To make this feat a reality, the team must channel its architectural forefathers to create a Frank Lloyd Wright-inspired, triple-decker treehouse for their clients. Complete with a bedroom, kitchen, bathroom and flat-roofs that double as decks, it'll be the perfect place for the new treehouse owners to host friends and family while overlooking the picturesque Lake Barkley.

SATURDAY, JULY 30th

DR. DEE: ALASKA VET: High on the Hog

World Premiere Saturday, July 16, at 8 PM (ET/PT)

TV-PG

After years of caring for animals across Alaska, Dr. Dee and her husband Ken take steps to fulfill her dream of opening a no-kill animal shelter. To recruit people to attend her fundraising event featuring amazing pet tricks, Dr. Dee stops by a dog sled race to get the word out. Back at her hospital Animal House, a pot-bellied pig named Lilly Lou undergoes a risky surgery, and Dr. Dee's long-time friend calls on her to treat a stallion with a potentially deadly tumor.

WEEK OF JULY 31st (as of 7.19.16)

THURSDAY, AUGUST 4th

NORTH WOODS LAW: Buck Fever

World Premiere Thursday, August 4, at 9 PM (ET/PT)

TV-PG

In the final week of Maine's deer season, some hunters are desperate and will do anything to bag a buck. Game Warden Chad Robertson confronts a felon with an illegal gun and a pile of bait, while Game Warden Ethan Buuck schools a hunter on the 18-hour law. There are some law-abiding citizens this deer season as Game Warden Chad Robertson meets a father teaching his son ethical hunting and helps them track down a buck. Later, a woman reports shots right outside her door, so Game Warden Wayde Carter investigates teen hunters who may be terrorizing the neighborhood.

LONE STAR LAW: Out for Blood

World Premiere Thursday, August 4, at 10 PM (ET/PT)

TV-PG

Opening weekend of deer season marks the start of a busy stretch for the Texas Game Wardens. Across the state, the team is out in full force in all 254 counties, checking hunters and their deer to make sure everyone's following bag limits and antler restrictions. Out West, a pair of hunters is caught spotlighting from a county road at night, and across the state in East Texas, a group is suspected of hunting without licenses. In Greenville, game wardens hatch a plan to catch the culprit responsible for a string of deer stand thefts. A public disturbance in the Sabine National Forest uncovers a much more serious problem, and near San Antonio, a cast of baby hawks that fell out of their nest need to be rushed to the nearest animal rehab facility.
