SUNDAY, MARCH 5th

ANIMAL COPS PHOENIX: Chain Break

Network Premiere Sunday, March 5 at 9 AM ET/PT

TV-PG

As summer arrives, temperatures in Phoenix soar to over 100 degrees, and the Animal Cruelty Investigators at Arizona Humane Society find themselves in a race against time. Animal Cruelty Investigator Mark Smith takes custody of a skinny Rottweiler chained out in the sun. Investigators Andy Gallo and Cynthia McGuire search for kittens trapped under roof tiles. At Second Chance Animal Trauma Hospital, the vet team works to save the life of a dog attacked by coyotes and decide to take extreme measures.

NORTH WOODS LAW: NEW HAMPSHIRE: Fighting the Flood

World Premiere Sunday, March 5 at 9 PM ET/PT

TV-14

For the Conservation Officers of New Hampshire, protecting the state's natural resources, citizens and wildlife is a big job in a small state. When a black bear cub becomes separated from its mother and wreaks havoc on a small community, Officer Glen Lucas intervenes. As heavy rains cause rivers to flood, Officer Eric Fluette races to rescue a man whose canoe has flipped in the rapids. About 100 miles to the south, Officer Chris McKee attempts to reunite a family of skunks. Officer Kevin Bronson pursues an ATV rider driving dangerously over the speed limit.

LONE STAR LAW: The Eagle Has Landed

World Premiere Sunday, March 5 at 10 PM ET/PT

TV-14

Game Wardens patrolling Canton Trades Days get a hot tip about someone attempting to sell illegal alligator parts, so they set up a buy-and-bust operation to catch the unlawful seller. Out on Lake Lewisville, a party's in full swing, and Game Wardens conducting water safety checks encounter many intoxicated boaters. An injured bald eagle near Dallas needs to be examined for possible foul play. Game Wardens on the Gulf Coast respond to a tip about an angler keeping a cooler full of undersized fish.

SATURDAY, MARCH 11th

DR. JEFF: ROCKY MOUNTAIN VET: Friends for Life

World Premiere Saturday, March 11 at 9 PM ET/PT

TV-PG

Dr. Jeff and Dr. Petra battle to save a German Shepherd's broken elbow and get him back to his worried owner, a disabled war veteran. When a family's cat arrives with a swollen bladder, Dr. Jeff must perform difficult surgery to save its life. Dr. Baier and Hector treat exotic birds rescued by a wildlife sanctuary.

THE ZOO: Moving Day

World Premiere Saturday, March 11 at 10 PM ET/PT

TV-PG

Clyde, the Bronx Zoo's huge male sea lion, is in a rut and has only one thing on his mind. With mating season in full swing, the staff needs to move the younger males before Clyde gets territorial. The veterinary team must exercise its ingenuity to repair a flamingo's broken ankle before he can rejoin the flock. A mammal keeper has to step out of her comfort zone when learning to feed a giant African rock python.

WEEK OF MARCH 12th (as of 3.1.17)

SUNDAY, MARCH 12th

ANIMAL COPS PHOENIX: Puppies in a Pipe

Network Premiere Sunday, MARCH 12 at 9 AM ET/PT

TV-PG

Animal Cruelty Investigators Cynthia McGuire and Andy Gallo must rescue a mother and her nine puppies from a storm drain before the rain arrives. Investigator Mark Smith seizes a neglected dog with a bad leg injury from an abandoned house. Ruthie Jesus rushes a mother and her three kittens found in a trash can to Second Chance Animal Trauma Hospital where they get life-saving operations.

NORTH WOODS LAW: NEW HAMPSHIRE: Alligator Showdown

World Premiere Sunday, March 12 at 9 PM ET/PT

TV-14

Officers Bill Boudreau and Eric Hannett investigate one of the strangest cases of their careers: a man raising alligators in the attic of his home. Biologists Mike Marchand and Brendan Clifford track, and attempt to capture, a venomous timber rattlesnake. In Sugar Hill, Officer Bob Mancini and his K-9 partner, Ruger, follow up on an anonymous tip in their pursuit of a habitual offender. As night falls over the White Mountains, Officers Glen Lucas and Eric Fluette ascend into the darkness to rescue a lost group of hikers.

LONE STAR LAW: Run and You're Done

World Premiere Sunday, March 12 at 10 PM ET/PT

TV-14

Dove season, a popular tradition in Texas, is the start of hunting season. All over the state, Game Wardens head out to patrol making sure hunters don't take more than the bag limit. Along Galveston Bay, Game Warden Provaznik saves spawning flounder from an unethical angler. A dog owner who thinks a mountain lion is attacking his pets calls in Game Warden Deschaaf. A deer decoy sting operation outside of Beaumont catches spot lighters trying to start deer season early. On the Gulf Coast, Game Warden Lindsey catches a trout poacher and rewards an honest fisherman.

SATURDAY, MARCH 18th

DR. JEFF: ROCKY MOUNTAIN VET: Shelter from the Storm

World Premiere Saturday, March 18 at 9 PM ET/PT

TV-PG

Dr. Jeff must act fast to save a beloved bulldog after a life-threatening accident. When a devastating flood hits Louisiana, Dr. Jeff sends Vet Tech Hector to rescue injured and sick pets left homeless in the disaster. Dr. Don discovers a cherished cat has swallowed something it shouldn't.

THE ZOO: A Star is Born

World Premiere Saturday, March 18 at 10 PM ET/PT

TV-PG

Snowball, an adult snow leopard, is ailing, and the veterinary team is scrambling to figure out what is wrong. Meanwhile, the birth of a little blue penguin becomes a sensation as keepers dive deep into the process of teaching it how to become a penguin. The exhibits team designs a new exhibit for the critically endangered blue iguana that has just arrived at the zoo.
