SEASON PREMIERE: “Dead Man’s Island: Blood and Treasure” – Premieres Wednesday, June 13 at 10 p.m. ET/PT

In the season opener, Philippe and Ashlan head to Ecuador, where they risk angry seas and modern-day pirates to investigate the ruthless buccaneer, Bartholomew Sharp. Did he attack a ship in the rough waters surrounding Dead Man’s Island in 1681 and kill 300 men in pursuit of his treasure – much of which could still be on the ocean floor? Alongside armed Ecuadorean Navy escorts, Philippe and Ashlan make the dangerous crossing to the eerie island in search of clues to the fate of the lost men and their loot. Diving into the area’s roiling waters, they uncover a stunning clue to the mystery that changes the course of the entire investigation.

“Key West’s Lost Treasure Galleon” – Premieres Wednesday, June 13 at 10:30 p.m. ET/PT

Discovered in 1985 off the coast of Florida, the Atocha is the richest treasure ship ever found. Now, the family of noted treasure hunter Mel Fisher and the team who discovered that wreck think they may have found another ship from the same fleet that could hold millions in treasure! Philippe and Ashlan Cousteau join the mission off Key West Fla. to help prove the identity of the mystery ship for the very first time.

THE DEAD FILES

In “The Dead Files,” former NYPD Homicide Detective Steve DiSchiavi and medium Amy Allan are on a mission to help beleaguered clients as they uncover paranormal histories and mysteries buried within haunted locations. As they arrive on scene, DiSchiavi and Allan investigate each case independently of one another to preserve the integrity of their individual findings. As a physical medium, Allan sees and communicates with the dead. Harnessing his detective skills, DiSchiavi researches the facts to understand each location’s history. The team avoids all contact with each other until the very end, when they reveal their shocking discoveries to the homeowner in each episode’s intense conclusion. Allan then provides much-needed advice for each client so they can restore peace and a sense of normalcy within their lives. [Hour-long episodes]
