NEW SERIES & SEASONS

(P) Denotes: Premieres

LOVE IS ____

Series Premiere Tuesday, June 19 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT)

Michele Weaver (“Illicit”) and Will Catlett (“Black Lightning”) star in OWN’s new romantic drama “Love Is ____,” from award-winning producers Mara Brock Akil (“Girlfriends,” “Being Mary Jane,” “The Game”) and Salim Akil (“Black Lightning”). Set primarily in 1990’s Los Angeles against the backdrop of Black Hollywood, “Love Is ____” follows Nuri (Michele Weaver) and Yasir (Will Catlett), a couple from seemingly opposite worlds, as they chase their dreams and learn to follow their hearts. Told from the perspective of the couple’s present-day selves, the romantic drama also revisits the social issues and vibrant black culture of that time reflecting on how it all aligned to shape the couple they have become nearly 20 years later -- a power couple navigating a complex set of social codes while also balancing successful careers and a beautiful family. Drawing inspiration from the Akil’s real life relationship journey, the series explores the highs, the lows, and the magic of falling (and staying) in love. “Love Is ____” also features Primetime Emmy®-winner Loretta Devine (“Grey’s Anatomy”), NAACP Image Award-nominee Vanessa Bell Calloway (“Coming to America”), NAACP Image Award-winner Tim Reid (“Sister, Sister”), Tosin Morohunfola (“The Chi”), Tammy Townsend (“Sherri”), and Michael King (“Black Lightning”), all with recurring roles.

(P) Tuesday, June 19 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Nuri and Yasir

Nuri and Yasir celebrate their 30th anniversary, where they take us back to the time they first met when Nuri’s (Michele Weaver) career was on the rise and Yasir (Will Catlett) was professionally and personally struggling.

(P) Tuesday, June 26 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: First Date

Yasir (Will Catlett) and Nuri (Michele Weaver) confess their love, and Yasir makes an important decision. Later, Nuri is determined to meet Yasir at a concert even if it means jeopardizing her status at work.

WELCOME TO SWEETIE PIE'S

Saturdays (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT)

When Robbie Montgomery's lung collapsed, the 1960's backup singer and former Ikettes had to hustle to keep her family afloat, so she whipped out her mother's recipes and turned her second love of cooking into a soul food empire. In the final season, Miss Robbie inches closer to her lifelong dream, while her son Tim Norman finds himself at a crossroad after Hurricane Harvey forces him to close his latest restaurant venture, and he considers exiting the family business...for good. As we say farewell to OWN's favorite family, Miss Robbie is forced to consider what kind of legacy she will leave behind, and who will be chosen to take over the Montgomery soul food empire.

(P) Saturday, June 2 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Come Together

Miss Robbie invites the family on vacation to New Orleans, but Tim decides to make it a work-cation for his Houston crew. Meanwhile, Tim's detour to Miami for the Trayvon Martin Peace Walk finds Miss Robbie alone in the Big Easy ready to get the party started.

(F) Saturday, June 9 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Movin On

In the 100th episode series finale, Tim, Charles, and Monique test out the food truck while joining the family in New Orleans. While there, Tim nervously invites his mom to record a song with him with dreams of reconnecting over their other shared passion: music.

QUEEN SUGAR

Wednesdays (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT)

In the series' third season, the contemporary drama from Academy Award-nominated director Ava DuVernay returns as the Bordelons find themselves continuing their fight to save their family farm and father's legacy as they navigate their own personal journeys. They soon find that their fight extends beyond their close-knit family, but also to the community. Charley (Dawn-Lyen Gardner) remains in the thick of the trials and tribulations in both her personal and professional life as she continues to battle the Landry family while also trying to ensure Micah's

(Nicholas Ashe) safety and future. Ralph Angel (Kofi Siriboe) is still reeling from learning from Darla (Bianca Lawson) that he might not be the biological father of his son, Blue (Ethan Hutchison), and attempts to push forward as the new cane season begins. A new and unexpected love in the form of an old friend comes into Nova's (Rutina Wesley) life and challenges her long-held notions of relationships while also offering her something she didn't think she could ever have.

(P) Wednesday, June 6 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Your Distant Destiny

Micah (Nicholas Ashe) starts his new school with excitement, an interaction with Blue (Ethan Hutchison) leaves Ralph Angel (Kofi Siriboe) guilt-ridden, and Nova (Rutina Wesley) must come up with new material for her book. Plus, Charley (Dawn-Lyen Gardner) reveals her secret plans to Nova, and Darla (Bianca Lawson) returns.

(P) Wednesday, June 13 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: No Haven In My Shadow

OPRAH'S BOOK CLUB: FREEDOM AFTER 30 YEARS ON DEATH ROW

Premieres Sunday, June 10 (11 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. ET/PT)

In an emotional conversation, Oprah speaks with Anthony Ray Hinton, author of her newest book club selection, “The Sun Does Shine: How I Found Life and Freedom on Death Row.” The memoir shares Hinton’s transformative, gripping and emotional story of faith, forgiveness and redemption. In 1985, 29-year-old Hinton was convicted of the murders of two fast food workers in Birmingham, Alabama. Despite no eyewitnesses, no evidence against him, and a solid alibi, he was found guilty and sentenced to death. For thirty years, he suffered in isolation and darkness on death row, serving time for crimes he did not commit. Somehow, Hinton found a way to hold on to hope, remain positive, and inspire his fellow inmates. With the help of civil rights' attorney Bryan Stevenson and the Equal Justice Initiative, Hinton was finally released in 2015. He reveals the powerful lessons he learned on death row: the true meaning of compassion, the root of racism, and how we can all overcome our circumstances and "learn how to love."
