NEW SPECIALS

MYSTERIES AT THE MUSEUM

"Special: Zodiac Killer"* - Premieres Wednesday, October 3 at 9 p.m. ET/PT

History enthusiast and adventurer Don Wildman investigates the most notorious unsolved crime in American history – the Zodiac murders. Diving headfirst into the case, Wildman meets with a retired inspector who worked the crimes, learns code breaking from a Zodiac cryptographer, visits a DNA lab to understand how close authorities are to catching the killer and learns a new theory on who may be responsible. [Hour-long special]

"Mysteries at the Museum" host Don Wildman looks over DNA samples with Gary Harmor, founder and director of Serological Research Institute

GHOST ADVENTURES

FOUR-PART MINISERIES: "Graveyard of the Pacific"

In this special four-part event, Zak Bagans, Aaron Goodwin, Billy Tolley and Jay Wasley head to the "Graveyard of the Pacific" – a treacherous nautical region of the Pacific Northwest, where the freshwater of the Columbia River meets the Pacific Ocean. Here, the ocean has claimed thousands of shipwrecks and countless lives, while unexplained deaths, diseases, fires and murders have impacted areas around the shoreline. The investigation takes the team to multiple haunted locations – from the underground tunnels weaving beneath the city of Astoria, Oregon, and the port city's Norblad Hostel to the Fort Stevens Military Base outside of town where dangerous entities are believed to haunt various sites. The investigation culminates at the North Head Lighthouse in Washington, which bore witness to some of the most tragic shipwrecks of this watery graveyard. [Hour-long episodes]

PART ONE: "Astoria Underground"- Premieres Saturday, October 6 at 9 p.m. ET/PT

Zak Bagans and the crew begin their investigation of the Graveyard of the Pacific in Astoria, Oregon, where they explore the port city's infamous Shanghai tunnels and uncover a series of misfortunes connected the works of H.P. Lovecraft.
