FOUR-PART MINISERIES: "Graveyard of the Pacific"

In this special four-part event, Zak Bagans, Aaron Goodwin, Billy Tolley and Jay Wasley head to the "Graveyard of the Pacific" – a treacherous nautical region of the Pacific Northwest, where the freshwater of the Columbia River meets the Pacific Ocean. Here, the ocean has claimed thousands of shipwrecks and countless lives, while unexplained deaths, diseases, fires and murders have impacted areas around the shoreline. The investigation takes the team to multiple haunted locations – from the underground tunnels weaving beneath the city of Astoria, Oregon, and the port city's Norblad Hostel to the Fort Stevens Military Base outside of town where dangerous entities are believed to haunt various sites. The investigation culminates at the North Head Lighthouse in Washington, which bore witness to some of the most tragic shipwrecks of this watery graveyard. [Hour-long episodes]

PART TWO: "Norblad Hostel"- Premieres Saturday, October 13 at 9 p.m. ET/PT

Zak Bagans and the "Ghost Adventures" crew continue their investigation of the "Graveyard of the Pacific" in Astoria, Oregon, where they encounter a very dangerous and very unholy presence in the basement of a historic hotel.

PART THREE: "Commander's House"- Premieres Saturday, October 20 at 9 p.m. ET/PT

The "Ghost Adventures" team continues their investigation of the "Graveyard of the Pacific" at a former military installation near Astoria, Oregon, that's haunted by a tragic past and home to an aggressive entity.
