FAMILY OR FIANCÉ

Season Premiere Saturday, January 11 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT)

"Family or Fiancé" returns to OWN for another emotionally explosive season. In this high-stakes social experiment, there will be disagreements, heartbreak, resolutions, and hopefully healing, as engaged couples seek the blessings of their disapproving families before their upcoming weddings. The couples and their families live under one roof for three days and participate in activities designed to strengthen their bond, unpack their differences, and show some very complicated relationships in a whole new light. In the end, will the experience confirm the families' concerns, leaving these couples to reconsider their unions? Or will it provide their families with a renewed understanding and persuade them to give their blessing to the couple's happily ever after?

(P) Saturday, January 11 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Cindy and Jamiah: Families in Feud

With only seven days until the wedding, two desperate fiancés attempt to find peace within their feuding families. However, they are completely ill prepared when their relatives unite with one common purpose: to declare they are not ready for marriage.

(P) Saturday, January 18 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Natasha and Romeo: Mind on Her Money, Mom on His Mind

After eight years together and a wedding in two months, a divorced father of two is still trying to get his mother to acknowledge his bride-to-be. In the process, he realizes that his own childhood wounds are what really need healing.

(P) Saturday, January 25 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: LaShonda and Dre: Loose Lips Sink Friendships

A bride-to-be with two daughters attempts to make peace with her fiancé's misogynistic best friend before their upcoming wedding. The couple discovers, however, that the key to a successful union lies in prioritizing and protecting their own.

HOME MADE SIMPLE WITH LAILA ALI

Saturdays (9 a.m. – 10 a.m. ET/PT)

Creating homes that deserving families love to live in is at the core of "Home Made Simple." The Saturday morning DIY show pairs inspiring families, a team of professional designers, carpenters, and special guest artists, who work together with the families to create simple solutions to everyday home challenges and design dilemmas. Host Laila Ali will be working alongside families as they transform their living, work and play spaces, revealing the compelling and inspiring stories of the families behind the makeovers. Laila, who describes herself as a "home cook," will also teach the families delicious, easy recipes from her cookbook "Food For Life."

(P) Saturday, January 4 (9 a.m. - 10 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Actor Dad's Design Role

Elliot is a commercial and television actor whose real life role is a family man and single dad. Along with his mom and three kids, he recruits "Home Made Simple" to transform his mellow yellow living room into a fresh, modern space perfect for entertaining.

(P) Saturday, January 11 (9 a.m. - 10 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Operation: Outback Oasis

Hillary and her Aussie husband Matt love to entertain, but their empty and awkwardly-shaped backyard is not welcoming to guests. Laila and the "Home Made Simple" team swoop in to give their new mates a resort-style outdoor space perfect for entertaining.

(P) Saturday, January 18 (9 a.m. - 10 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Heart, Soul, and Kitchen Bowls

Homeowners Barbara and James run a family catering business and shelter less fortunate members of their community, but they have been taken advantage of by unscrupulous contractors. The "Home Made Simple" team steps up to fix their botched kitchen.

(P) Saturday, January 25 (9 a.m. - 10 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Denim Dreams Come True

Sasha was born with cerebral palsy and epilepsy, and has had incredible success with art therapy. "Home Made Simple" turns a bare garage into the new headquarters for this amazing girl's non-profit that uses art to raise funds for other kids.
