CONTINUING SERIES (New Episodes)

(P) Denotes: Premieres

“Home Made Simple” Saturdays (9-10 a.m. ET/PT)

Each week host Paige Davis (“Trading Spaces”) and her team of experts meet a couple who find themselves stuck in their quest of making over a room, tackling a big party or planning a once-in-a-lifetime event. Whether our couples are married, best friends, sisters or mother/daughter, Davis and her experts guide them through a series of projects and recipes as they build to the big reveal. With the clock ticking as they try to complete their transformations, our dynamic team is there to help simplify tasks and show our couples short cuts so they can live their best lives.

(P) Saturday, April 14 (9-10 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Learning to Divide Work Time From Family Time

Running a business out of her home, Donna is finding work time interfering with family time so host Paige Davis and her experts help define a space just for work. Donna transforms a garage into a stunning home office space and gets surprised with brand new kitchen appliances.

(P) Saturday, April 21 (9-10 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Letting Go of Fear and Embracing a New Chapter

Facing a new chapter in her life after a divorce, Janet wants to finally let go of her fear and embrace her new beginning. Host Paige Davis and her team of experts help transform a dated living room while showing her innovative ways to keep her new life organized.

(P) Saturday, April 28 (9-10 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Mom Makes Good on Sweet Sixteen Promise

Rachel's dream of throwing her daughter a sweet sixteen party finally comes true when host Paige Davis and her experts pay her a surprise visit. Rachel transforms her living room into a party palace complete with a dance floor and personalized party favors.

“Welcome to Sweetie Pie’s”
Saturdays (9-10 p.m. ET/PT)

When Robbie Montgomery toured with the 1960s soul duo sensation Ike and Tina Turner as one of the original backup singers, she poured her creative gifts into her cooking as much as her singing. And after her lung collapsed and she could no longer sing, Miss Robbie took her mother’s soul food recipes, passed down through generations, and created the empire known as “Sweetie Pie’s,” St. Louis’ iconic and wildly popular soul food restaurant run by Miss Robbie and her dynamic family. With two successful locations, Miss Robbie is upping the ante and preparing to open a third restaurant with the help of her son and business partner, Tim. While Tim and his fiancée, Jenae, tend to their newborn son and plan their wedding, Miss Robbie – who has never been married – continues to look for love at the age of 71 all the while keeping the family in line -- especially her wise-cracking nephew Lil’ Charles. “Welcome to Sweetie Pie’s” follows the loud, loving and still very musical Montgomery family as they struggle with the demands of expanding their family-owned business and creating a legacy to pass on to future generations, one soulful dish at a time.

(P) Saturday, April 7 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Growing Pains

It’s a busy week at Sweetie Pie’s: Miss Robbie’s oldest grandson asks to move to St. Louis and into her house, Tim is dealing with Jenae’s foray into wedding planning and a new assistant manager is hired who can’t seem to stop crying at work.

(P) Saturday, April 14 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: You Can Count on Me

Trust becomes the issue when Miss Robbie’s prized picture is stolen from the restaurant, her 17-year-old grandson lies about dating an older employee, and Tim and Jenae try to find the perfect nanny to watch TJ when Jenae goes back to work.

“Beverly’s Full House”
Saturdays (10-11 p.m. ET/PT)

This new docu-series follows what happens when three generations of supermodel Beverly Johnson’s family come together under one roof — her beautiful home in Palm Springs, California. Eight one-hour episodes follow Johnson as she steps out of her role as glamorous fashion icon and opens her home to her daughter Anansa (a plus-size model), son-in-law David (a former NFL player), and their newborn baby Ava, in an effort to reconnect with her daughter and to help her growing family get ahead financially during a tough economy. Humorous and heartfelt, “Beverly’s Full House” explores the unpredictable dynamic between mother, daughter and son-in-law. Along the way, viewers will witness the drama, good times and bad times as Beverly’s traditional/non-traditional family learns to make it all work.

(P) Saturday, April 7 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Supermodel Behavior

Beverly and Anansa seek the help of a life coach to aid them in their ongoing progress of improving their relationship. But when a miscommunication results in Anansa being left behind on more than one occasion, their progress comes to a standstill.

(P) Saturday, April 14 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: You Can’t Have Your Cake and Eat It Too

Beverly’s birthday is around the corner and she knows exactly what she wants, but Robert and Anansa have some different ideas. Dangerous golfing conditions, hypnotherapy gone array and two birthday parties, all cause drama in the Johnson house.

(P) Saturday, April 21 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Mother Knows Best

Beverly's mother and sister are visiting. Just as everyone settles in, Beverly announces that she'll be leaving for work and she expects Anansa to drop everything and join her. This places Anansa in a difficult position with her husband and his mother.

(P) Saturday, April 28 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Working It Out

Therapy comes to a screeching halt when Anansa learns that their life coach is Beverly's boyfriend's friend. Tanya the trainer comes to help kick-start a workout routine for the girls. While hiking, Anansa delivers some startling news to Beverly.
