“SUPER SAVER SHOWDOWN” (60 Minutes)

Series Premiere - Friday, August 3 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT)

Hosted by DIY expert Kristan Cunningham (“Design on a Dime”), each episode of “Super Saver Showdown” features two obsessed bargain hunters competing to see whose coupon clipping, super saving and DIY skills are the best, while helping families throw stylish events on a budget. In round one, the two super savers, paired with a member of the family they’re playing for, must shop for the food essentials for their parties with only $100 in just 20 minutes. The winner of round one takes home a week’s worth of free groceries for themselves and their families. In round two, contestants share their savings tips and DIY tricks with the families as they race against the clock to plan and throw their parties with only an additional $100 in just 48 hours. In the end, host Kristan Cunningham judges the contestants on the savings and style of their parties and the best super saver is awarded $10,000.

“LOVETOWN, USA” (60 Minutes)

Series Premiere – Sunday, August 19 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT)

After a nationwide search, Oprah Winfrey named Kingsland, Georgia to be “Lovetown, USA.” Oprah traveled to Georgia and launched the first of its kind social experiment, where she called the community to action at a "love rally" and challenged everyone to "open their arms and hearts to the possibilities of all kinds of love." Two experienced relationship coaches, Paul Carrick Brunson and Kailen Rosenberg, have the daunting task of transforming Kingsland in 30 short days. The coaches will attempt to mend relationships of embattled friends and lovers, and find true love for singles with people living in their own back yard. Involving everyone from the mayor to grade school students, this social experiment will examine the affects love, grace, kindness and forgiveness can have on an entire community.

(P) Sunday, August 19 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Oprah’s Love Experiment

Oprah Winfrey visits Kingsland, Georgia with a one-of-a-kind challenge for the community to focus on love for 30 days. Love coaches Paul Carrick Brunson and Kailen Rosenberg uncover a literal dance war among three dance studios in the town.

(P) Sunday, August 26 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Love and War

The love coaches take on the battle of three warring dance studios and attempt to resolve their bitter feud. Meanwhile, love coaches Paul Carrick Brunson and Kailen Rosenberg match six local singles out on their first dates with hopes of lasting love.

(P) Tuesday, August 21 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Swingers Next Door

Monogamy is the defining feature of almost all American marriages, but today more and more everyday Americans are choosing to leave the "vanilla" world behind and embrace their own unique brand of "negotiated monogamy." It's estimated that 15 million Americans are active in the Swinger lifestyle. From suburban house parties to exclusive nightclub gatherings, Host Lisa Ling crosses the country to explore what's at stake with this non-traditional yet growing phenomenon.

"REAL LIFE: THE MUSICAL" (60 Minutes)

Fridays (10-11 p.m. ET/PT)

Music speaks where words fail. That's the premise for this new reality series that helps ordinary people risk it all to surprise someone they love with an unexpected musical performance that says what they are really feeling: "I love you," or "marry me," or "thank you." With just five days to pull it off they are teamed with a celebrity vocal coach, a choreographer, and two music producers who are the professional help they need to stage a live "flash musical" that helps make their dreams come true. The coaches will enlist the help of the singer's friends, family, and co-workers to create a back-up chorus of singers and dancers to support him or her as they pour their heart out to their unsuspecting loved one. Can they all learn the dance in time? Will the singer be able to hit that high note at the exact right moment? What will the reaction be? It's the performance of a lifetime that could literally change everyone's life.

(P) Friday, August 3 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: A Real High School Musical

Actress Marilu Henner's son Nick is a recent high school graduate who, with the help of surprise guests Mark Ballas from "Dancing With The Stars" and a celeb alum, has just days to pull off the ultimate "thank you" to a teacher that changed his life.
