“Home Made Simple”
Saturdays (9 a.m.-10 a.m. ET/PT)

Each week host Paige Davis (“Trading Spaces”) and her team of experts meet a couple who find themselves stuck in their quest of making over a room, tackling a big party or planning a once-in-a-lifetime event. Whether our couples are married, best friends, sisters or mother/daughter, Paige and her experts guide them through a series of projects and recipes as they build to the big reveal. With the clock ticking as they try to complete their transformations, our dynamic team is there to help simplify tasks and show our couples short cuts so they can live their best lives.

(P) Saturday, February 11 (9-10 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: A Guest Room That Keeps On Giving

With her husband David traveling for work, Julie often relies on family members to help her take care of her two young daughters. Julie’s guest room is a clutter catastrophe, so host Paige Davis and her experts help transform it into a beach-like bungalow.

(P) Saturday, February 18 (9-10 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Giving Back With A Reverse Baby Shower

Alison is expecting her second child but she still hasn’t put her nursery together. Uninterested in a conventional baby shower, host Paige Davis and her experts help Alison throw a “reverse baby shower” where she donates clothes and toys to expectant moms in need.

“Super Soul Sunday”
Sundays (8 a.m.-11 a.m. ET/PT)

Designed to help viewers awaken to their best selves and discover a deeper connection to the world around them, programs featured in “Super Soul Sunday” include never before seen episodes of “Oprah’s Soul Series,” a series of in-depth, one-on-one conversations between Oprah and some of the most fascinating authors, thinkers and spiritual leaders of our time, uplifting feature-length documentaries, short-form content from Soul Pancake (the production company co-founded by “The Office’s” Rainn Wilson) and more. Exploring themes and issues including happiness and personal fulfillment, wellness, spirituality and conscious living, these programs present an array of perspectives on what it means to be alive in today’s world.

“Oprah’s Next Chapter”

Sundays (9 p.m.-10 p.m. ET/PT) & Mondays (10 p.m.-11 p.m. ET/PT)

In this new primetime series, Oprah Winfrey steps outside of the studio for riveting, enlightening in-depth conversations with newsmakers, celebrities, thought leaders and real-life families.

(P) Sunday, February 12 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Hasidic Jews of Brooklyn Part 1

(P) Monday, February 13 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Hasidic Jews of Brooklyn Part 2

For the first time ever, Oprah travels to Brooklyn, New York to meet two Hasidic Jewish families. The families lift the veil, revealing the secrets to their usually private and mysterious way of life. Oprah first visits the Ginsbergs in Borough Park and tours their traditional Hasidic home. Oprah learns why Hasidic women wear wigs and why Hasidic couples refrain from sex for two weeks out of a month. She sits down with the family for a traditional Jewish meal and asks the nine Ginsberg children - who range in age from 18 months to 17 years - what it's like to have never seen TV or surfed the internet. Later, Oprah travels to Crown Heights to meet the Abrahamsons, one of very few Black Hasidic families in the world and learns about the unique challenges and blessings the family faces.

(P) Sunday, February 19 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Tony Robbins Part 1

(P) Monday, February 20 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Tony Robbins Part 2

Oprah is given unprecedented access to life and business catalyst Tony Robbins in Los Angeles at his “Unleash The Power Within” seminar, where she observes from behind-the-scenes how Robbins preps and plans for his large-scale seminar events. Winfrey joins several thousand people to experience firsthand one of his “Breakthrough” sessions, where she overcomes a major fear of her own – firewalking! Oprah then sits down with Robbins for an intimate conversation about how he coached himself out of his own failures, what he believes is the secret to success, how anyone can overcome obstacles and close the gap between who they are and who they want to be.

“Oprah’s Master Class”

OWN DOCUMENTARY CLUB

“Love Etc.”

Premieres – Thursday, February 2 (8-10 p.m. ET/PT)

Repeats – Tuesday, February 14 (9-11 p.m. ET/PT)

“Love Etc.” is a witty, poignant and humorous exploration about the universal stages of love, documented through five real stories over the course of one year in New York City. Is love everlasting? Does marriage change a relationship? Can a single man take on a newborn? Does absence make the heart grow fonder? From teen romance to a decades-long marriage; newlyweds to a recent divorcee, and even a bachelor so frustrated in his search that he chooses to have children without a partner, “Love Etc.” takes an honest and engaging look at life's most challenging pursuit through five subjects aged 18-89.

DOCUMENTARY SPECIAL

“Prom Night in Mississippi”

Premieres – Sunday, February 19 (3-5 p.m. ET/PT)

The documentary special, “Prom Night in Mississippi,” tells the story of the fallout from actor Morgan Freeman’s offer to fund the first-ever integrated prom in his hometown of Charleston, Mississippi. In 1997, Academy Award-winning actor Morgan Freeman made an historic offer to Charleston High School: He would foot the bill for the school's senior prom – on the condition that both black and white students be allowed to attend. Even though the students shared classes and every other aspect of school life, the town of Charleston had a tradition of holding two proms – one white, one black. Freeman's offer was ignored. In 2008, he made it again. This time, the school accepted and history was made, but not without significant opposition.
