NEW SERIES AND SEASONS

(P) Denotes: Premieres

“Oprah’s Next Chapter”

Series Premiere - Sunday, January 1 at 9 p.m. ET/PT (Two-hour premiere)

In this new, weekly, primetime series, Oprah steps outside of the studio for riveting, enlightening in-depth conversations with newsmakers, celebrities, thought leaders and real-life families. During the first season, Oprah visits Aerosmith’s Steven Tyler at his home in New Hampshire, journeys to Haiti with Sean Penn nearly two years after the devastating earthquake that took the lives of more than 300,000 people, tours Skywalker Ranch with George Lucas as her personal guide, has a slumber party at Southern chef Paula Deen’s Georgia estate and travels to a small town in Iowa devoted to the practice of Transcendental Meditation.

(P) Sunday, January 1 (9-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Steven Tyler

Oprah’s exclusive two-hour interview with legendary Aerosmith frontman Steven Tyler as he reflects on his rock star life: his love affairs, his struggles with drug and alcohol abuse, his family, and his experiences as a judge on "American Idol."

(P) Sunday, January 8 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Joel Osteen

Oprah travels to Houston, Texas to meet America’s most influential spiritual leader Pastor Joel Osteen and his wife Victoria. Oprah attends his mega-church service and visits him at home to talk about faith, marriage, power and ego.

(P) Sunday, January 15 (9-10:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: George Lucas

Oprah travels to the world famous Skywalker Ranch to visit "Star Wars" creator George Lucas and his girlfriend, Mellody Hobson. Oprah also sits down with Cuba Gooding, Jr. and Terrence Howard, the stars of Lucas’ new film "Red Tails."

(P) Sunday, January 22 (9-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Paula Deen

Oprah visits Paula Deen, the “Queen of Southern Cuisine,” at her home in Savannah, Georgia with her best friend Gayle King. It’s two days of Paula’s delicious down home cooking, revealing and intimate conversation and hilarious adventures!

(P) Sunday, January 29 (9-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Sean Penn in Haiti

Oprah goes to Haiti. She visits a 20,000 resident tent camp run by actor and activist Sean Penn and discovers both heartache and hope among the Haitian people two years after one of the worst natural disasters in history.

“Extreme Clutter”

Two Night Season Premiere - Sunday, January 1 at 11 p.m. ET/PT and Monday, January 2 at 10 p.m. ET/PT (60 minutes)

Each week, organization expert Peter Walsh encounters the biggest, most extreme problems he has ever seen as he continues his mission of helping families whose lives have been dramatically affected by the overwhelming presence of clutter. Using his step-by-step process, Peter guides families through the emotional journey of overcoming their attachment to material items. He pinpoints the root of their problem, and provides them with practical tools to live a clutter-free life. In season two, Peter takes a look at specific themes associated with disorganization and clutter including: overcoming the temptation to shop for good deals, clutter related to broken relationships, the impact clutter has on families and kids, and how to move forward and let go of items after the loss of a loved one.

(P) Sunday, January 1 (11 p.m.-12 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Buried in Denial

Kym Foley is in denial about her clutter problem. She will not let anyone into her home so her friends call in Peter for an intervention. Kym will prove to be one of Peter's most extreme challenges yet.

(P) Monday, January 2 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Beyond Addiction

Actress Mackenzie Phillips' clutter is deeply rooted in years of addiction, a difficult relationship with her father and estrangement from her sisters. Unless she deals head on with the things that cause her pain, she may never move beyond her cluttered past.

(P) Monday, January 9 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Addicted to Shopping

Stacy is a shopaholic, and she's dragging her husband, Michael, and their two kids into a dangerous cycle of clutter and debt.

(P) Monday, January 23 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: A Double Intervention

It's a double intervention as Peter steps in to help Peggy and her daughter, Demee, dig out from a massive amount of clutter and family tragedy.

(P) Monday, January 30 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: My Secret Clutter - Finale

From the outside, Leeann is a supermom that appears capable of handling just about anything. But she is hiding a secret clutter problem where no one would imagine...in an airplane hangar.

“America’s Money Class with Suze Orman”
Series Premiere - Monday, January 9 at 9 p.m. ET/PT (60 minutes)

Each week, Suze delivers a master class on money in front of a live studio audience, answering questions in-person and via video conference, as she offers her unique no-nonsense approach and provides solutions that empower everyone to own their financial future. Some of Suze’s topics include the most common money mistakes, surviving financial infidelity, prioritizing debt, buying and selling real estate, learning to talk about money matters with your family, how to get control of spending, what to look for in a loan, where you should invest and Suze will also give viewers a chance to win up to $50,000 when they take her final exam at the end of the finale episode. The series will also feature an online companion class on Oprah.com/MoneyClass with financial resources, interactive opportunities with other students and Suze's coveted financial kits as free giveaways.

(P) Monday, January 9 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Money Secrets Revealed

Class #1: Erase your debt forever; steps to buy a home; what to know if you're losing your home.

(P) Monday, January 23 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Money & Family

Class #3: Avoid financial scams; how to save thousands a year; landing your dream job.

“Beyond Belief on OWN”

Network Premiere - Tuesday, January 24 at 10 p.m. ET/PT (60 minutes)

"Beyond Belief on OWN" explores stories of wonder, mysteries and miracles delving into the unknown and unexplained. The stories inside the series will make you question what you already believe and pose such questions as: Can this be real? Can that really happen? How did they survive? Was it a miracle? Are there really people who can accurately predict the future? What is life like on the other side? Is it possible to communicate with the dead?

Hosted by New York Times Best-selling author and Army combat veteran Wes Moore, the series takes viewers on a spellbinding journey into the lives of ordinary people who have lived through remarkable experiences. ABC News’ team of award-winning journalists including Elizabeth Vargas, Bob Woodruff, Jay Schadler, Bill Weir and JuJu Chang bring viewers jaw-dropping stories from around the world and our own backyard. In this hour-long magazine format, we’ll meet remarkable children, unlikely heroes, telepathic twins, super humans – athletes and artists, soldiers – as well as look into the mysteries behind the Virgin Mary and what people see when they have been on the other side.

(P) Tuesday, January 24 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Unlikely Heroes

Sometimes acts of heroism come as the response to the most unbelievable turn of events. In this episode, a three-foot rocket lodges in the abdomen of a U.S. soldier turning him into a human bomb. Also, two families set out to whale watch in Mexico and find themselves risking their lives to save a dying whale from a fisherman's net.

(P) Tuesday, January 31 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Miracles

Two athletes in prime physical condition survive brutal falls during training. They shouldn't be alive to tell their tales, but in this hour viewers will hear about their death-defying experiences first-hand. Doctors can't explain how they cheated death and only describe it as a miracle that saved them or an unbroken chain of mysterious events.
