WELCOME TO SWEETIE PIE'S

Season Premiere - Saturday, July 12 (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT)

When Robbie Montgomery, a 1960s backup singer and former Ikettes, suffered a collapsed lung and had to stop singing, she decided to pour her talents into another creative venture: a soul food restaurant called Sweetie Pie's. At her family-centered eateries, which include Sweetie Pie's at the Mangrove, Sweetie Pie's Upper Crust and the original Sweetie Pie's established in 1996, which Miss Robbie runs with her son, Tim, both hilarity and drama are offered in equal measure. This docu-series follows the loud, loving and often singing Montgomery family as they work to expand their empire, one soulful dish at a time.

(P) Saturday, July 12 (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: 301

Sweetie Pie's is on a roll as Miss Robbie & Tim shift gears away from Houston, heading down to check out a possible restaurant on Beale Street in Memphis. Meanwhile, back in St. Louis, Tim's new hire has tough new rules that has Mangrove's old timers asking where they fit in.

(P) Saturday, July 19 (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: 302

With only five weeks to open in Memphis, Tim tries to convince Miss Robbie to let a culinary school staff the kitchen. Meanwhile, Michelle & Danielle continue to clash with their new boss, and Jenae & Tim have strong differing opinions on preschools for T.J.

The team works with Sir Richard Branson and non-profit organizations including Virgin Unite, Bhubezi Health Centre and Ulusaba Pride 'N Purpose.

LIFE WITH LA TOYA

Saturdays (10 p.m. – 10:30 p.m. ET/PT)

"Life With La Toya" takes viewers inside the outrageous world of La Toya Jackson—the wild card of one of showbiz's most famous families—as she juggles her career, love and maybe even marriage, all on her own unpredictable terms. In this season, La Toya is taking charge of her life and finds that life on top also comes with its challenges. She tackles some long-harbored issues in therapy, giving her a newfound confidence, which presents an issue for her business partner and constant companion, Jeffré, who's not used to sharing her with anyone.

(P) Saturday, July 5 (10 p.m. - 10:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Runaway Bride

La Toya and Jeffré finally reveal the news of their engagement to close friends Brenda and Tresa, but when a nervous La Toya refuses to try on a wedding dress, they begin to suspect she has cold feet.

(P) Saturday, July 12 (10 p.m. - 10:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: How To Lose A Guy In One Episode

After shocking Jeffré with news of her cold feet, La Toya decides it's time to get back to work, hitting the studio to record a new single. But will Jeffré think her new plan is a hit, or will he see it as her way of dealing with their stalled engagement?

(P) Saturday, July 19 (10 p.m. - 10:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: If My Heart Could Speak To Your Heart...

La Toya is finally ready to go ahead with the engagement, so after she finds the perfect wedding dress, Jeffré convinces her to take the next big step and move in together. But after years as friends, how well do Jeffré and La Toya really know each other?

(P) Saturday, July 26 (10 p.m. - 10:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Lights, Cameras, Jackson!

When La Toya agrees to do her first video in 20 years, it brings up insecurities about her dancing. Jeffré suggests doing a live show to boost her confidence, but it's a strategy that could backfire when technical problems threaten to ruin the show.

OUR AMERICA WITH LISA LING

Thursdays (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT)

After 44 episodes, the acclaimed series --- known for its thought-provoking look at American life and in-depth explorations of the nation's most controversial issues --- will cap its last season with 10 one-hour episodes. With new topics including gun violence in Philadelphia, ADHD in American families, the largest foster care system in the country, criminal informants, the HIV epidemic in the African American community and the emotional story of a woman held captive for months, the new season features some of the most powerful episodes in the series' four-season history.

(P) Thursday, July 3 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Children of the System

Los Angeles County's foster care system is the largest in the country. Host Lisa Ling investigates what happens to a child after they've been removed from their family, the actions parents take hoping to reunify, and how the system is holding up under the strain.

(P) Thursday, July 10 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Under The Gun

Host Lisa Ling travels to Philadelphia, a city where seven people are shot each day, to meet the crusaders who are determined to end gun violence on their streets. As these activists battle on, Philly's citizens hope and pray that together, they can find peace.

(P) Thursday, July 17 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Labeled For Life: 18 Months Later

Host Lisa Ling travels back to Texas to see how 18 months on the Sex Offender Registry has affected Travis Iosue, and finds him on the cusp of a major break in his case -- one that could mean the end of parole and a reprieve from a lifetime on the registry.

(P) Thursday, July 24 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Teen Mom Nation: 2 years Later

In season two of Our America, host Lisa Ling met four very different pregnant teens, all forced to grow up too fast. Two years later we revisit Latanya and Sophie to see how their youthful decisions on motherhood have changed their lives.

(P) Thursday, July 31 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: The Missing

In the series finale, host Lisa Ling explores the world of missing persons. She meets a woman in Philadelphia who is struggling to recover from a notorious kidnapping; and a mother in our nation's capital trying to keep the hunt for her missing daughter alive.

LOVE THY NEIGHBOR (30 Minutes)

Wednesdays (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT)

"Tyler Perry's Love Thy Neighbor," the situation comedy by writer and director Tyler Perry, is a wonderfully fresh show about a middle-class family and their daily joys, struggles, triumphs, and fumbles. Hattie Mae Love (Patrice Lovely) lives in the simple home that she and one of her husbands bought some time ago. Linda (Kendra C. Johnson), her daughter, splits her time between Hattie's home and the apartment she sometimes shares with her on-again, off-again husband, Lionel. Danny (Andre Hall), Linda's son, is his mother's pride and joy. He is young, handsome, smart, and adjusting to life after college. Floyd (Palmer Williams, Jr.), the uncle, through his late brother's marriage to Hattie Mae, is an ever-present thorn in the family's side. Like old luggage, they can never seem to get rid of him.

(P) Wednesday, July 2 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Will and Philip

Linda (Kendra C. Johnson) is surprised when she finds her new crush Philip playing cards with the crew in Hattie's (Patrice Lovely) kitchen.

(P) Wednesday, July 9 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Love Thy Competition

Linda's (Kendra C. Johnson) main man, Will, breaks up with her after he catches Linda and her new crush, Philip, kissing.

(P) Wednesday, July 16 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: A Tornado Named Linda

Danny (Andre Hall) drops by the Love Train Diner to check on his mother Linda (Kendra C. Johnson), who is in a terrible mood after Will suddenly ends their relationship.

(P) Wednesday, July 23 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Lucky Socks

Danny (Andre Hall) asks Hattie (Patrice Lovely), if he, his Uncle Floyd (Palmer Williams) and whole gang of friends can crash at her house after being temporarily evicted.

(P) Wednesday, July 30 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: The Makeup

Linda (Kendra C. Johnson) tells her new crush Philip she's decided to heat things up again with her old flame Will and no longer wants to date him.
