Each episode is filled with the stress of major renovations, the temptation of beautiful new real estate and a fierce rivalry between the two series hosts, David Visentin and Hilary Farr, for the homeowners' allegiance. In the end, each homeowner must decide – do we love it enough to stay or is it time to list the home for sale?

(P) Saturday, June 11 (8-9 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: The Challenger Family

Kim and Richard Challenger were newlyweds when they bought their two bedroom Toronto home. Fast-forward 12 years and add two adolescent kids into the mix and the Challenger's living situation has become, well, challenging! Will Hilary discover hidden potential in this small home or will David convince Kim and Richard to leave their cramped quarters behind?

“Finding Sarah: From Royalty to the Real World”

Series Premiere - Sunday, June 12 at 9 p.m. ET/PT (60 minutes)

After decades under the harsh glare of the media spotlight, Sarah Ferguson, the Duchess of York, is undertaking her toughest challenge yet, rebuilding her life and career. Candid and unprecedented, the new six-episode series follows the Duchess' emotional struggle to find herself and happiness. Following a major scandal last year, the Duchess hit rock bottom. Feeling inspired after a tell-all interview with Oprah Winfrey, the Duchess decides she must confront her past and take positive steps to change her life.

(P) Sunday, June 12 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: My Fall from Grace

In the opening episode, viewers meet Sarah Ferguson, the Duchess of York, and learn about her ongoing struggles with self worth and how past mistakes continue to haunt her. Sarah decides she must change her life and seeks out the assistance of Oprah's experts, Dr. Phil and Suze Orman. With their guidance, the journey to find the real Sarah begins.

(P) Sunday, June 19 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Braving the Big City

Sarah goes to New York City to jumpstart her career but discovers she can't escape the News of the World scandal. Following a tense business meeting, the stressed Duchess visits a doctor and later reaches out to Suze Orman for additional financial and career advice. Sarah then meets with publisher, Judith Curr, who urges her to write a book about last year's scandal, an idea that leaves Sarah feeling uncertain and insecure. Struggling to come to terms with the impact of the scandal, she has a second meeting with Dr. Phil who sheds light on Sarah's biggest issue – her addiction to acceptance and approval. Sarah leaves New York feeling enlightened and empowered.

(P) Sunday, June 26 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Soul Searching in the Desert

Eager to find answers wherever she can, Sarah travels to the deserts of Arizona. There she seeks help from a myriad of characters, including a shaman, a Harvard educated life coach and a horse whisperer. As unconventional as their methods may be, Sarah walks away from each experience feeling more and more empowered.
