NEW SERIES & SEASONS

(P) Denotes: Premieres

“OPRAH: WHERE ARE THEY NOW?” (60 Minutes)

Series Premiere – Tuesday, October 2 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT)

“Oprah: Where Are They Now?” takes a look back at what happened to some of the biggest headline makers of all time and “Oprah” show guests. Updates include never-seen-before footage of Rodney King’s last interview, Mary Jo Buttafuoco, Kato Kaelin, the pregnant man and the first female cadet at The Citadel.

(P) Tuesday, October 2 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: The Children Oprah Never Forgot

After Oprah Winfrey met Kris and Daisy on “The Oprah Winfrey Show” in 2007, she could never forget their story, a young brother and sister whose mother abandoned them seven years ago. Winfrey’s producers found the mother in a Texas county jail. Winfrey travels to the jail, where a dramatic, painful and emotional reunion takes place.

(P) Tuesday, October 9 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Mary Jo Buttafuoco & The Woman Addicted to Plastic Surgery

In 1992, Mary Jo Buttafuoco was shot by her husband’s teenage mistress Amy Fisher. Now Buttafuoco opens up like never before about her unforgettable story of survival and what she thinks about her assailant and ex-husband. Buttafuoco also talks about forgiveness and finding a new love later in life. The episode also visits with memorable Oprah show guest Jenny Lee, the woman addicted to plastic surgery.

(P) Tuesday, October 23 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Rodney King’s Last Interview and Newsmakers Kato Kaelin & Shannon Faulkner

Rodney King made headlines in 1991 when he was beaten by police, and again in 1992 with the acquittal of the officers, which incited the race riots in Los Angeles. In his final interview taped only two weeks prior to his untimely death, King, who is joined by his fiancé Cynthia, opens up about his alcohol addiction and how he felt 20 years later about the cops who beat him and the incident that made him famous. Later Kato Kaelin, houseguest of O.J. Simpson, reveals his thoughts on Simpson today and what he said to Simpson on the day of the murders. Also, updates with Shannon Faulkner, the first female cadet at The Citadel who won admittance into the all-male military college.

(P) Tuesday, October 30 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Pop Stars Hanson, the Child Who Wanted A Sex Change & the Heroin Family

“Oprah: Where Are They Now?” follows up with Hanson, the pop group sensation who made “MMMbop” the top of the charts in 1997. Find out about their growing families and if the three brothers are still making music today. Back in 2004, Oprah interviewed Kaden, a transgendered 11-year old who wanted a sex change. Now twenty years old, Kaden takes us inside his life eight years later and reveals if he decided to get the operation – and if he’s dating. Finally, a shocking update on the father, mother, and two sons who were all hooked on heroin.

“WELCOME TO SWEETIE PIE’S” (60 Minutes)

Saturdays (9-10 p.m. ET/PT)

After former Ikettes Robbie Montgomery found out she could no longer sing, she took her mother’s soul food recipes passed down through the generations and created the empire known as Sweetie Pie’s, St. Louis’ iconic and wildly popular soul food restaurant run by Miss Robbie and her dynamic family. Now with two thriving locations, a third location recently underway, a wedding to plan for her son Tim and his fiancé Jenae, and two grandsons to tend to, Miss Robbie is struggling to keep up with the demands between business and family. Meanwhile, her son Tim has his hands full juggling his new role as sole restaurant manager, aspiring rapper and life as a new dad. “Welcome to Sweetie Pie’s” follows the loud, loving and still very musical Montgomery family as they struggle with expanding their family-owned business and creating a legacy to pass on to future generations, one soulful dish at a time.

(P) Saturday, October 6 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Don’t Be A Party Pooper

With the Upper Crust employees fighting, it looks like Miss Robbie won’t be able to rest during her birthday week, and Tim starts to feel trapped after Mr. Bussey tells him he needs to start thinking about how he’ll run Sweetie Pie’s once his mom retires.

(P) Saturday, October 13 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Showing Up Is Hard To Do

As Jenae prepares for baby TJ’s first birthday party, Miss Robbie threatens to send her other grandson Andre back to Texas. Meanwhile, Tim’s responsibilities at Mangrove may prevent him from getting to TJ’s party in time – putting him in hot water with Jenae.

(P) Saturday, October 20 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Charles in Charge

Miss Robbie reaches her breaking point and takes off on vacation, leaving Charles in charge of the Upper Crust. Meanwhile, all Jenae wants is for Tim to help her get their wedding plans back on track before they both get cold feet.

“IYANLA: FIX MY LIFE” (60 Minutes)

Saturdays (10-11 p.m. ET/PT)

Iyanla Vanzant is an accomplished author, inspirational speaker, talk show host, and living testament to the value in life's valleys and the power of acting on faith. Iyanla has had a unique life filled with many personal struggles that she has overcome and used to become stronger. Now Iyanla is back, helping people fix their lives using her past to help others' futures. Secrets will be revealed, truths will be uncovered and emotions will come out as Iyanla teaches us how to pull back the curtain on what is broken in our lives.

(P) Saturday, October 6 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Fix My Backstabbing Friends

Jealousy and backstabbing got in the way and put an end to the partnership of popular bloggers, Six Brown Chicks. Iyanla Vanzant steps in and digs deep to reveal the real truth behind their behavior and explores the reasons why some women can't get along.

(P) Saturday, October 13 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Fix My Absent Father

Iyanla Vanzant heads to Chicago where she helps heal the wounds of four children in turmoil over their drug-addicted absentee father. Will, Carissa, Mia and Crystal, who are now grown, were raised by their grandmother since their father spent much of their lives incarcerated and their mother dropped out of their lives completely. On the day of his possible release, Vanzant will break down emotional walls and get to the hearts of these four children in anticipation of his return.

(P) Saturday, October 20 (10-11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Fix My Feuding Sisters

Iyanla Vanzant brings three Detroit area sisters, who say they've always struggled to be close, back to their childhood home. Deep secrets of their past are revealed as Vanzant helps bring them back together so that they can heal after the death of their mother.

“OPRAH'S NEXT CHAPTER” (60 Minutes)

Sundays (9-10 p.m. ET/PT)

The primetime series features Oprah Winfrey as she steps outside of the studio for riveting, enlightening and in-depth conversations with newsmakers, celebrities, thought leaders and real-life families.

Sunday, October 7 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Invisible Children's Jason Russell

In an exclusive interview, Jason Russell, the creator of Kony 2012, the most successful viral video of all time, tells the intimate details of his public breakdown. For the first time ever, his wife describes the day her husband snapped.

"OPRAH'S LIFECLASS" (60 Minutes)

Sunday, October 28 (9-10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: I Am: Life is How You See It

Oprah Winfrey takes the stage from Houston, Texas as teacher in one of the world's biggest classrooms to share and discuss the principles that guide our lives. Winfrey is joined by Pastor Joel Osteen to discuss how to make the best of our everyday circumstances.
