SPECIAL ENCORE PRESENTATIONS

RUNNING FROM CRAZY

Monday, August 4 (6:30 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. ET/PT)

The Emmy-nominated documentary "Running From Crazy" from two-time Academy Award-winning filmmaker Barbara Kopple examines the personal journey of Academy Award-nominated actress and mental health advocate Mariel Hemingway, the granddaughter of writer Ernest Hemingway, as she strives for a deeper understanding of the suicide and mental illness that have afflicted so many of her family members, including her supermodel sister, Margaux Hemingway and her oldest sister, artist Joan "Muffet" Hemingway. Intimate verite footage and raw, emotional interviews with Mariel herself are interwoven with stunning, rarely seen archival footage of the three Hemingway sisters and their parents. Audiences are taken back in time to revisit the famous family and their remarkable, though often heartbreaking legacy, and see how it resonates today. As Mariel comes to terms with the tragedies that have shaped the course of her life, she finds a way to overcome a similar fate for herself and her daughters by embracing a conscientious and active lifestyle, which includes the daily practice of yoga and meditation, healthy eating and discovering new relationships. She becomes deeply committed to promoting this lifestyle and to bringing awareness to an issue she cares deeply about -- suicide prevention. Through it all, Mariel comes to discover the inner strength, happiness and peace that have eluded her for so long. "Running From Crazy" is a true testament of the sheer power of the human spirit and our ability to rise above the sadness of our past to find a better, happier tomorrow.

LOVE IN THE CITY

Kiyah, Bershian, Chenoa and Tiffany have known each other for more than ten years, and are constant sources of inspiration, support, competition and companionship to one another. Kiyah, an ambitious and successful celebrity hair stylist, is the link who brought the four friends together, and New York City's legendary Harlem neighborhood is where the quartet come together on a regular basis ... over drinks, lunches, dinners, you name it. Two are married, two are single, and all are strong and fiercely independent women who believe in living out their dreams and not letting anyone or anything get in their way. Through the group's adventures, misadventures, romances, successes and life-altering struggles, they may not always see eye-to-eye, but when push comes to shove, they are there for each other with solid and unwavering support as they each face their own unique challenges and triumphs.

Sunday, August 10 (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: What's Love Got To Do With It

Kiyah makes the cross-country move to New York and leaves her boyfriend behind, Chenoa is living on her own after separating from her husband, Bershan reveals life-changing news, and Tiffany opens up about a secret that shocks her friends.

Sunday, August 17 (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Secrets Revealed

Chenoa and Bershan are frantically putting together a fabulous birthday party for Kiyah's 40th, but Tiffany is making it impossible. Bershan tells Kiyah that she needs to move out. Chenoa gets an intriguing proposition from her estranged husband, Carlyle.

Sunday, August 24 (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Nobody Said Sexy Was Easy

Kiyah finds a new apartment and starts to get serious about having a baby. Bershan asks Chenoa to help spice up her marriage by doing a sexy, lingerie photo shoot. Chenoa takes the girls to a lesbian bar to test drive the idea of a second wife.

Sunday, August 31 (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: The Miseducation of Kiyah Wright

Tiffany questions Brian's commitment but still wants him to meet her mom. Chenoa gets a photography job that may interfere with her work on the donut shop. Bershan races to her dad after a car accident, and Kiyah has her own emotional family visit in D.C.

WELCOME TO SWEETIE PIE'S

Saturdays (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT)

In an all-new season, Miss Robbie and her son, Tim, prepare to expand their restaurant empire beyond St. Louis with a new location on historic Beale Street in Memphis, Tennessee. Getting the restaurant together is no easy task as they prepare to renovate the new location and find staff to train in time for the summer rush. Meanwhile, back in St. Louis, Tim struggles with planning the move to Memphis while continuing to manage the local restaurants, and hires a new district manager, Ma'ri, who quickly implements change and starts ruffling the staff's feathers. As if Miss Robbie's plate wasn't full enough, she's also moving ahead with launching her new Sweetie Pie's Sweet Tea line. It's all systems go as this family works hard to expand their brand – one recipe at a time.

(P) Saturday, August 2 (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Good Cop, Bad Cop

Miss Robbie breaks her wrist roller-skating, but rallies to attend the career fair in Memphis with Tim and Charles as she's not going to trust anyone else to hire cooks for the new restaurant. Back in St. Louis, Monique worries about a bullying situation that's affecting her daughter Nya at school, and new district manager Ma'ri replaces the old time clock system with a digital one that uses fingerprints, much to the frustration of the staff.

(P) Saturday, August 9 (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Running Out of Time

Frustrated by the lack of progress at the new restaurant in Memphis, Miss Robbie sends Tim, Charles, and Ike down to see if they can get the ball rolling on construction. After giving it his best effort, Tim worries that their collective elbow grease isn't going to get the space ready to open in May as originally planned, so he brings in a crew to help them start tearing down walls. At the same time, the staff hasn't been able to figure out how to use Ma'ri's new time clock system, causing Miss Robbie to miss payroll for the first time in 17 years. Angry, Miss Robbie demands Ma'ri find a way to fix the problem or find herself a new job.

(P) Saturday, August 16 (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Ready to Launch

After almost two years of being single, Jenae goes on a date with a man she meets at the gym – and is even open to going out with him on a second date. Meanwhile, Miss Robbie and Tim are excited to learn that Schnuck's, a local grocery chain that earlier expressed interest in carrying Sweetie Pie's Tea in a limited number of their locations, has decided to stock it in all 100 of their stores. After a successful launch event for the tea, Tim and Robbie head back to Beale Street. As Miss Robbie tries to decide what their next steps in Memphis should be, Tim declares that he's still feeling the pull to start the new restaurant in Houston instead and has to decide if he's going to help his mom finish renovating her dream, or head to Texas to follow his own.

LIFE WITH LA TOYA

Saturdays (10 p.m. – 10:30 p.m. ET/PT)

"Life With La Toya" takes viewers inside the outrageous world of La Toya Jackson—the wild card of one of showbiz's most famous families—as she juggles her career, love and maybe even marriage, all on her own unpredictable terms. In this season, La Toya is taking charge of her life and finds that life on top also comes with its challenges. She tackles some long-harbored issues in therapy, giving her a newfound confidence, which presents an issue for her business partner and constant companion, Jeffré, who's not used to sharing her with anyone.

(P) Saturday, August 2 (10 p.m. - 10:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Meet The Parents

With marriage around the corner for La Toya and Jeffré, it's time for the in-laws to finally meet. But since La Toya and Jeffré come from two different worlds, their relationship may be threatened. Only time will tell.

Season Finale (P) Saturday, August 9 (10 p.m. - 10:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: The Big Announcement

Finally ready to go public with their engagement, La Toya and Jeffré plan an elegant cocktail party to make the big announcement. But once the celebration begins, it becomes clear that the happy couple is no longer on the same page about the wedding.

Season Finale (P) Saturday, August 9 (10:30 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: The Meltdown

With the party is in full swing, it's time to announce La Toya and Jeffré's engagement. But things do not go as planned and the bride-to-be runs off the stage in a panic.

LOVE THY NEIGHBOR (30 Minutes)

Wednesdays (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT)

"Love Thy Neighbor," the situation comedy by writer and director Tyler Perry, features a middle-class family and their daily joys, struggles, triumphs, and fumbles. Hattie Mae Love (Patrice Lovely) lives in the simple home that she and one of her husbands bought some time ago. Linda (Kendra C. Johnson), her daughter, splits her time between Hattie's home and the apartment she sometimes shares with her on-again, off-again husband, Lionel. Danny (Andre Hall), Linda's son, is his mother's pride and joy. He is young, handsome, smart, and adjusting to life after college. Floyd (Palmer Williams, Jr.), the uncle, through his late brother's marriage to Hattie Mae, is an ever-present thorn in the family's side. Like old luggage, they can never seem to get rid of him.

(P) Wednesday, August 6 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Gotcha Part 1

Danny (Andre Hall) suspects a potential client of being the woman who duped his mother out of three thousand dollars.

(P) Wednesday, August 13 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Gotcha Part 2

Linda (Kendra C. Johnson) is heartbroken after discovering that Will (Thai Douglas) conned her.

(P) Wednesday, August 20 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Make Love To Me

Linda (Kendra C. Johnson) decides to throw caution to the wind and indulge in a night of passion with Philip (Tony Grant).

(P) Wednesday, August 27 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: A Night Away

Linda (Kendra C. Johnson) is shocked and disappointed when she wakes up and finds herself in Philip's (Tony Grant) bed.
