REVISED FEBRUARY 2011 HIGHLIGHTS

NEW SERIES

“Searching For…”
Series Premiere - Monday, February 14 at 9:00 p.m. ET/PT (60 minutes)

"Searching For…" is a docu-series following the real-life work of Pam Slaton, a professional investigative genealogist, stay-at-home mom and New Jersey housewife. Viewers are in for an intensely personal and emotional ride as cameras follow Pam and her clients through the step-by-step journey of “Searching For” a lost loved one. Each searcher’s story is vastly different and the outcomes are highly unpredictable and emotionally charged. Whether Pam’s clients experience a joyous reunion, painful rejection, or tragic loss, they are all guaranteed to walk away with the closure they were desperately seeking.

Monday, February 14 (9 – 10 p.m. ET/PT) – Premiere Episode: Candice & Seth
Pam Slaton carefully navigates two of her clients through family secrets, confessions and deceptions. Candice is searching for her birth mother without her family’s blessing. Seth is hoping to connect with the brother he did not know he had.

Monday, February 21 (9 – 10 p.m. ET/PT) – Episode: Martie & Efram
Martie is searching for the daughter she placed for adoption over 40 years ago, and Efram is desperate to find his father whom he has not spoken to in nearly 30 years. Can genealogist Pam Slaton help create the reunion they’re dreaming of?

Monday, February 28 (9 – 10 p.m. ET/PT) – Episode: Mary & David
Mary’s dream of being reunited with her birth mother ends with a surprising twist of fate. David has nearly given up hope of finding his birth mother after an unsuccessful 25-year search, but what Pam Slaton uncovers will leave him speechless.
“Breaking Down The Bars”
Series Premiere - Tuesday, February 15 at 9:00 p.m. ET/PT (60 minutes)

“Breaking Down the Bars” is a seven-episode docu-reality series that follows the dramatic transformation of a group of female prisoners during their time at the Rockville Correctional Facility in Indiana. With the help of therapist Dr. Stephanie Covington, the series documents the heart-wrenching journeys of these women as they take the steps needed to reach their personal goals. This program also reveals the stories of the families of these women as they wrestle with the reevaluation of their lives due to the incarceration of a loved one.

Tuesday, February 15 (9 – 10 p.m. ET/PT) – Premiere Episode: You’re Not Here to Make Friends
In the first episode, we are introduced to a group of female inmates and therapist Dr. Stephanie Covington. Abbie checks into her first day of a 15-year sentence, Hannah begins to confront her demons during an emotional visit with her parents and Larretha, a former all-star basketball player, refuses to play by the rules and lands in solitary confinement.

Tuesday, February 22 (9 – 10 p.m. ET/PT) – Episode: The Recovery Process
During a mediated session by Dr. Stephanie Covington, Hannah reveals to her parents that her boyfriend enabled her heroin addiction; Amanda longs to rebuild her relationship with her mom and Tiffany has a late night run-in with correctional officer that threatens her hopes of early release to return to her cancer-stricken mother.

“Our America with Lisa Ling”
Series Premiere - Tuesday, February 15 at 10:00 p.m. ET/PT (60 minutes)

From religious movements to sex offenders to drug addiction and online brides, “Our America with Lisa Ling” takes viewers along for an in-depth look at some of the most controversial and thought-provoking issues in the United States today. In each episode, Lisa immerses herself into the lives of the people she meets, offering compelling accounts of varied experiences and providing insight into some of our nation’s most contentious issues. In sharing these stories, Lisa challenges viewers to understand different perspectives and even question what they themselves have always known to be true in Our America.

Tuesday, February 15 (10 – 11 p.m. ET/PT) – Premiere Episode: Faith Healers
Lisa Ling journeys inside a massive faith healing revival to discover the people who believe in miracles and the people who promise them. As more Americans than ever turn to supernatural cures, Lisa is challenged by what she thought she knew about faith.

Tuesday, February 22 (10 – 11 p.m. ET/PT) – Episode: Transgender Lives
It’s one of society’s most basic ways of identifying ourselves: man or woman, male or female. But for hundreds of thousands of people across America, those distinctions aren’t so clear. Sometimes, what a person appears to be on the outside, may not match who they feel they are on the inside. They are transgender. Now, Lisa Ling explores the very private worlds of five different transgender people across America, from first realizing that their gender doesn’t conform to the body they were born in, to finally becoming the man or woman they know they were meant to be. Each of the people Lisa meets is on a similar journey of transformation: to express who they truly are and to finally feel comfortable in the world – something we all strive for.
