WELCOME TO SWEETIE PIE'S (60 Minutes)

Season Premiere - Saturday, March 15 (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT)

When Robbie Montgomery, a 1960s backup singer and former Ikette, suffered a collapsed lung and had to stop singing, she decided to pour her talents into another creative venture: a soul food restaurant called Sweetie Pie's. At her family-centered eateries, which include Sweetie Pie's at the Mangrove, Sweetie Pie's Upper Crust and the original Sweetie Pie's established in 1996, which Miss Robbie runs with her son, Tim, both hilarity and drama are offered in equal measure. This docu-series follows the loud, loving and often singing Montgomery family as they work to expand their empire, one soulful dish at a time.

(P) Saturday, March 15 (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Houston's Calling

As Miss Robbie tries to keep the peace between a battling Jan and Michelle at the West Florissant store, Tim and Charles travel to Houston in search of a new restaurant location, and Jenae is left to consider what a move would mean for her family.

(P) Saturday, March 22 (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Shifting Priorities

With Miss Robbie focused on preparing her brother George for his open-heart surgery, Tim takes charge of the Upper Crust store and doesn't like what he sees. Meanwhile, a bombshell is dropped on Charles that forces him to make a career move.

(P) Saturday, March 29 (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Negotiating a Dream

Unbeknownst to Miss Robbie, Tim is back to Houston moving plans along on a new Sweetie Pie's location. Meanwhile, Monique thinks it's time to have the dreaded birds-and-bees talk with Nya, and Linda finds her dream home in Miss Robbie's neighborhood.

LINDSAY (60 Minutes)

Sundays (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT)

The highly anticipated OWN documentary series “Lindsay,” directed by Emmy-nominated filmmaker Amy Rice (“By The People: The Election of Barack Obama”), follows movie star and media sensation Lindsay Lohan on her journey through recovery following a very public period of crisis. Lindsay is one of the most talented young actresses of her generation, boasting an impressive list of credits (“The Parent Trap,” “Mean Girls,” “A Prairie Home Companion”). Having had her career and personal life sidelined by her public struggles, Lindsay is strikingly candid about her life and is more determined than ever to get back on her feet. In this honest, no-holds-barred account, viewers will see an intimate, unflinching look into the life of one of the world’s most sought-after celebrities. Cameras follow Lindsay as she returns to New York, reunites with friends and family, and attempts to build a new life. As she works to stay on track amid the demands (and pitfalls) of fame, she opens up as never before, discussing everything from her emotional recovery process to her exhausting run-ins with the paparazzi.

(P) Sunday, March 16 10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Part Two

While trying to manage her sobriety in a still-chaotic environment, Lindsay fights to move into her new apartment. She has a heated conversation with her father and struggles with her mother's recent DUI arrest, as the series producers start to question her commitment.

(P) Sunday, March 23 (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Part Three

After finally getting keys to her new apartment, Lindsay refuses to let cameras film and her assistant threatens to quit. Aware of growing production issues, Oprah travels to Lindsay's mother's Long Island home to discuss whether or not Lindsay wants to continue shooting the documentary series.

(P) Sunday, March 30 (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Part Four

After a visit from Oprah, Lindsay attempts to jump-start her career by doing a skit with Jimmy Fallon, then performs court-mandated community service at a local children's center. Michael, Lindsay's sober coach, heads back to Los Angeles, leaving her in charge of her own sobriety.

DEION'S FAMILY PLAYBOOK (60 Minutes)

Saturdays (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT)

"Deion's Family Playbook" is the fun-filled and compelling real-life story of Deion Sanders, the only pro athlete to ever play in both a Super Bowl and a World Series. Few people know that Deion is a single father raising five kids of his own, while also helping to raise four other children who live with him, including the twins whom his mother cares for, his niece and nephew and a student in need whom he recently took into his home. Additionally, Deion is co-founder and football coach of Prime Prep Academy, a charter school that aims to make a lasting impact on the lives of children in underserved areas. With so much on his plate both at school and at home, Deion strives to keep all facets of his complicated, crazy and chaotic life in balance and under control. Help is on the way every other week when his girlfriend, Tracey Edmonds, a Hollywood producer who has two sons of her own, comes to visit.

(P) Saturday, March 15 (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Dropping Beats and Dropping Balls

Deion worries that Shilo is failing at football due to his relentless pursuit of a music career. Shelomi causes concern over her unhealthy eating habits. Florida tries to win over a girl with a unique disability.

(P) Saturday, March 22 (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Mama Drama, Exes and Oprah

Tracey's mom, Jackie, comes to town and stirs things up when she questions the amount of time Tracey spends in Dallas. Meanwhile, Deion bonds with Tracey's ex-husband, Kenny "Babyface" Edmonds, and teaches Florida how to drive for his 16th birthday.

(P) Saturday, March 29 (10 p.m. - 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Everybody Gets Benched

When Deion's rigorous schedule and the chaos at Prime Prep take a physical toll, he winds up in the hospital. Tracey tries her hardest to bond with Deion's mother, Connie. Florida needs new glasses.

LOVE THY NEIGHBOR (30 Minutes)

Wednesdays (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT)

From prolific writer, director, producer Tyler Perry, "Love Thy Neighbor" is a half-hour comedy set at The Love Train Diner, a family run restaurant where every day the menu serves up good food, great laughs, valuable life lessons and a whole lot of love. Diner owner and feisty family matriarch Hattie Mae Love (Patrice Lovely) has her hands full not only managing her customers but her family drama, too. Her daughter Linda (Kendra C. Johnson), recently moved into her mama Hattie's home after finally giving her philandering husband the boot. Linda's son Danny (Andre Hall), a recent college grad, moves into a bachelor pad with his best friend Sam (Jonathan Chase) and lands a job at a hot internet design firm. He quickly establishes himself as a rising star...that's when he's not distracted by Sam's hard-partying ways and their beautiful co-workers Marianna (Zulay Henao) and Drew (Darmirra Brunson). Meanwhile, Uncle Floyd (Palmer Williams) is an ever-present thorn in the Love family's side. Like old luggage, they can never seem to get rid of him. As the new season unfolds Linda finally jumps back into the dating scene. Her decision will scare her son Danny almost to death, but will yield great results as she meets two handsome suitors. It is feast or famine when it comes to dating for Linda, but when she meets Will (Thai Douglas) and Phillip (Tony Grant), the famine is officially over. It turns out that Hattie's tough love pays off as Linda comes roaring back to her vibrant self.

(P) Wednesday, March 12 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Permission Granted

As Philip (Tony Grant) works up the nerve to ask Linda (Kendra C. Johnson) out for a date, he first decides to ask Danny (Andre Hall) for permission.

(P) Wednesday, March 19 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: I Don't See You That Way

Philip (Tony Grant) tries to woo Linda (Kendra C. Johnson) with a romantic dinner.

(P) Wednesday, March 26 (9 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: The Kiss

After an abundance of coaxing from her family, Philip (Tony Grant) decides to express his feelings to Linda (Kendra C. Johnson).
