R.L. Stine’s The Haunting Hour (Airs weekdays at 5/4c. Special marathon starting at 5/4c on Halloween)

Anthological storytelling comes to television in this half-hour, live-action children’s series that embraces the thrill of the chill, the nervous page-turning giggle and the scream that only comes when someone – or something – touches your shoulder on a dark and stormy night. “R.L. Stine’s The Haunting Hour: The Series,” winner of the 2013 and 2014 Daytime Emmy® Award for Outstanding Children’s Series, takes viewers, young and old, on a creepy new adventure every week. This is the show kids won’t let their parents watch by themselves! The series is inspired by the master of kids’ horror R.L. Stine (“Goosebumps”). Popular guest stars this season include China Anne McClain (“A.N.T. Farm,” “Sing Your Face Off”), Sean Giambrone (“The Goldbergs”), Mason Cook (“The Lone Ranger,” “Legends”), Luke Benward (“Cloud 9,” “Ravenswood”), Nolan Gould (“Modern Family”), Joey King (“OZ the Great and Powerful,” “Fargo”), Freya Tingley (“Hemlock Grove,” “Once Upon a Time”) and acclaimed actress Margot Kidder (“Superman”).

R.L. Stine’s The Haunting Hour: Don’t Think About It (Airs on Halloween at 7/6c)

From the creator of Goosebumps comes a spooky adventure tale about 13-year-old Goth girl Cassie who is bullied by her peers, tired of her parents and bugged by her little brother. But when she decides to get some harmless revenge by reading a scary book to her brother, she ends up summoning a monster in the process!

R.L. Stine’s Mostly Ghostly (Airs on Halloween at 9/8c)

Two young ghosts and an 11-year-old magician battle a wicked ghoul in this haunted adventure filled with thrills, chills and hilarious spills. Based on the successful book series by R.L. Stine.
