ANIMAL PLANET CELEBRATES SPRING SOLSTICE WITH 'TOO CUTE!' MARATHON BEGINNING WEDNESDAY, MAR.
18 AT 12PM ET/ PT

In celebration of the spring solstice, Animal Planet brings the cute animals to you by kicking off a 94 hour marathon of its paw-tastic, fan-favorite series TOO CUTE! starting Wednesday, Mar. 18 at 12PM ET/ PT and running through Saturday, Mar. 22 at 8PM ET/ PT. Kick back and get comfortable with each captivating episode that chronicle the most precious moments and milestones in the lives of the cutest and most cuddly creatures! Fan favorite encore episodes from the TOO CUTE! marathon will air Sunday, March 23 from 6AM-8PM ET/PT.

From furry felines and teacup pigs to playful puppies and rambunctious rabbits, the TOO CUTE! marathon will include all time-favorite moments from almost 60 episodes just in time for the spring season, proving that cute comes in all shapes and sizes. Take a look at this classic moment from the series featuring a seeing eye dog puppy in training on Animal Planet's Facebook page. Tell us your favorite moments from the marathon and share photos of your pets enjoying the series on your television using #TooCute on social media.

TOO CUTE! ran on Animal Planet from 2011-2016, making an unforgettable mark to millions of viewers across the country. The series received two Emmy® nominations for 'Outstanding Narrator' from 2014-2015 for its narration by Henry Stozier who weaves engaging tales about the charismatic animals featured, including puppies, kittens, and cute critters, and the coming of age in the first ten weeks of their lives. TOO CUTE! was produced for Animal Planet by True Entertainment.
