With a moniker like "Prince of Darkness," legendary rocker Ozzy Osbourne has long been known for straddling the dark side. When it comes to ghosts and the supernatural – which son Jack brazenly investigates in the Travel Channel series "Portals to Hell" – what do the "Paranoid" singer and his wife, "The Talk" co-host Sharon Osbourne, really think? In an unforgettable event, Ozzy and Sharon sit down together to watch an episode of the hit show, as Jack and his fellow co-host, Katrina Weidman, join the candid, unfiltered fun. The special one-hour "Portals to Hell – Watching With the Osbournes" event will air on Thursday, April 30 at 8 p.m. ET/PT, ahead of an all-new episode of the series at 10 p.m. ET/PT.

While in self-isolation, Ozzy and Sharon are catching up on the latest episodes of "Portals to Hell," a paranormal-investigative series that follows Jack and Katrina as they explore America's most haunted and sinister locations, in search of irrefutable evidence that a spirit world exists. From the comfort of their couch, Ozzy and Sharon watch the duo's terrifying investigation of the Shanghai Tunnels in Portland, Oregon, while Jack, maintaining social distance practices, joins them from his own home. What does the couple, known for humorous candor, make of Jack's work and the paranormal ... are they believers or skeptics? Will they be anxious parents watching their son step into uncharted territory? Or cheer him on to take down the demon? Throughout the show, Jack and Katrina share exclusive anecdotes from their eerie investigation. It's a watch party like you've never seen before!

"This is a time to hunker down with loved ones and catch up on your favorite TV shows, and we're giving viewers the rare chance to join a family viewing party with the Osbournes," said Matthew Butler, general manager, Travel Channel. "Fans often wonder what Ozzy and Sharon think about 'Portals to Hell,' and whether they are believers of the paranormal. Who better to speak to that than the royal rock couple themselves, in the humorously frank way we've come to know and love."
