About Put A Ring On It

On average, during its current season, Put A Ring On It ranks #1 in the Friday 10p hour across all cable with African-American W25-54, W18+, Households and total viewers (Persons 2+).

The couples will embark on the ultimate relationship test. The couples will finally find out if they are truly meant to be together by dating other people, and in so doing, they'll discover if there's a love connection they've been missing all along. Each week the couples are pushed, stretched, and tested to confront the question they've been too afraid to ask: is this their happily ever after? Will they decide it's time to go their separate ways or is it finally time to put a ring on it?
